Mr. Sulatycky retumed July 15th and will be in the area until August 28th. He visits Drayton Valley on July 30th and August 3rd.

During his visit Mr. Sulatycky would be happy to see any constituents who may phone him person-to-person at 778-2123, Whitecourt.

Consider Water Extension At Entwistle

A delegation of ratepayers was present at the Entwistle Council meeting held July 13th. to request consideration of their petition for extension of the water line south of Highway 16 to provide water service to residents west of 52nd street.

Council is sympathetic to their need of this service and instructed the secretary to investigate ways of financing the project and to request permission of The Public Utilities Board.

By-Law No. 52 for the sale of Lots 23 and 24 Block 8 Plan 7471V and By-Law No. 53 for the sale of Lots 16 and 17 Block 5 Plan 6543X were given three readings and passed by Council.

Date of the Public Auction has been set for Friday, September 18th, 1970.

Monday, August 3rd, has been proclaimed a Public holiday for the Village.

Motion was passed to make application at this time for the Highways Assistance grant for the construction of new sidewalks, some sidewalk repair and the gravelling of streets.

Regular Meeting Town Council

A regular meeting of Town Council was held last Thursday with Planner, Wayne Gordon present to discuss the mobile home development proposed by West Valley Developments.

Mr. Gordon advised council that the Edmonton Regional Planning Commission's proposal of stages 1 and 2 differed to that proposed by the developer in that the southerly boundary had become one row of lots further south than previously intended.

He recommended that the southerly boundary be extended to include a further row of lots to assure that the last row would face a street. Mr. Gordon also stated that he felt it would be neccesary to develop the north 50 lots, or about 60% of completion before the more southerly two rows of lots are developed.

Council also agreed to the proposal by the developer that at least 20 per cent of the mobile home subdivision lots be for sale and the balance for rent.

Council Briefs

Mr. Norman of Granadon Builders was also present at the meeting and expressed concern about a scarcity of RIB zoned residential lots. He also discussed CMHC financing of low cost housing.

Three readings were given to the by-law authorizing the sale of a residential lot to Mr. William Hutchinson.

Council authorized an increase in the contract price for waste collection and disposal to the contractor, J. Hazzard, to $14,400. per year. Payments are to be made monthly, and for each additional residence an extra $2.00 per month.

The guest speaker for the break was Mrs. M. Huddlestone, FWUA 1st Vice-president. She gave an interesting talk about her recent trip to England and Scotland. Problems there include inflation, taxation, and unemployment. The wages for an average worker at $260 to

County Swim Program Well Underway

The swimming program is now well under way throughout the county. Mort Grande, swim program supervisor, reports that some 450 children are now taking lessons. Of this total about 180 are at the Entwistle pool while the balance are being transported to Edmonton, Devon, and Drayton Valley. These "Red Cross" learning - to - swim lessons will be attended by examners at the conclusion and it is hoped a high percentage of passing awards will be issued.

The August 3rd session is filled in the east end of the county but a few more registrations can be accepted from the west end for the Entwistle and Drayton Valley pools. Phone the recreation office in Stony Plain at 777-2211 for particulars.

Senior Citizens' Home Progresses

Three meetings have taken place between a group composed of the Order of the Royal Purple, The B.P.O. Elks and representatives of the Senior Citizens' Association to try and lay the ground work in order to build a Senior Citizens' Home in Drayton Valley. At the last meeting Mr. Martin Thomas of the Alberta Housing Corporation was in attendance. The A.H.C. has the power to make an outright grant of one-third the capital cost of such a home. The remainder to be financed through C.M.H.C. except for five per cent which would have to be raised by the sponsoring association.

In order for the sponsoring association to determine the needs of the Senior Citizens of the community and surrounding area, a questionnaire is being prepared. This questionnaire will be for all citizens over sixty years of age and will help to determine what facilities and what kind of home is required. Anyone interested may contact Mrs. B. Simon or Mr. H. Cathrea if they wish to attend the meetings or assist in this association.

Derailment At Fallis

Twenty-seven cars of a CNR freight train were derailed at Fallis early Monday.

Passenger traffic was interrupted Monday but by early Tuesday temporary repairs were completed enabling traffic to resume.

No one was injured in the derailment.

Twenty-four hours after the first derailment, another occured at the same location on the temporary track by-passing the first. Crews were busy Tuesday attempting to clear the right-of-way and get traffic moving again.

Young Voyageurs Feted at Evansburg

The Evansburg Council hosted a Western beef supper for four young voyageurs from Rimouski Quebec, Saturday July 11.

The four teenagers were part of a group of 21 exchange students who were visiting the Yellowhead School Division area. These four were billeted at the homes of Ivan Brown, Kurt Fausak, Andy Rosadiuk and Joe Rosadiuk.

Mayor Guy Dompnier welcomed the voyageurs, addressing them in both, English and French. He stated that they had been exposed to a different cultural and social life and he hoped it would give them a deeper knowledge and understanding of their Western counterparts.

Mayor Dompnier also stated that he hoped their visit would help dispell the impression many Quebecers have: that Alberta is a huge ranch and its people are all cowboys. He stated Albertans were proud that their Provinces economy was as diversified as that of any other province.

Mrs. M. Cumming, Secretary Treasurer of the Village, presented each voyageur with a small souvenir of Evansburg and the visitors were wished a 'Bon Voyage' on their return to 'La Belle Province'.

More than 7,000 visitors strolled through the gardens of the Kentville, N.S., Research Station of the Canada Department of Agriculture, to view the vivid rhododendron beds on display to the public at the station's "Rhododendron Sunday" recently.

We found out that Duane Brant, of Cincinnati, Ohio, and Dan and Dave Tiffany of York, Penn., started out from Columbus, Ohio on June 10th on their bicycles to travel across Canada. They went up around Lake Superior across the plains to the mountains, to Vancouver, then back to the Atlantic through the states when the trip should be finished by September 1st. They reported as enjoying the west as the people here were so friendly compared to the east. We hope that they had a successful experience and I am sure a very rewarding holiday.

Maclures Write from Africa

Editors Note: The following very interesting letter was received last week from Dr. and Mrs. Hugh Maclure, formerly of Drayton Valley.

Kagando Hospital
A.I.M. P/B Kasese
Uganda, E. Africa

Dear Ron and Frankie:

Greetings. We'd be very grateful if you could spare us a few lines in the Western Review with our news. We fully intended to write before leaving Canada at the end of April but you know how it is. We have so many good friends who made our stay in Drayton Valley so enjoyable that we'd like to feel we're keeping in touch with as many as possible.

Our hospital at Kagando was started after the Congo rebellion 5 years ago. We are just across the border-being in the Western foothills of the Ruwen-Zori Mountains (Mountains of the Moon), which form the Uganda Congo border here, running North and South. There are a few complications here about which we cannot write and travel on foot is a bit restricted but we are so busy that it doesn't matter too much. We have a 70 bed unit and there are two African trained medical assistants, three white nurses, (2 American and 1 Canadian). Muriel does the pharmacy and there are about 14 African Ward Aids and Trainees whom we try to give instruction to. This summer Andrew has been with us and he's been busy doing everything from assisting in Surgery to playing in the local town soccer team. I've played too in practice games but they call me Muzee which, though a term of respect, really means 'Old Man' in Swahili, so my ego is crushed. Let's face it - it means 'very old man'. It must be the altitude (4200 ft.)

With the help of the two African assistants we have about 250 out patients daily to sort through, and of course its not possible to do much more than sort out those who are at the point of death, need immediate treatment or have some condition for which a remedy is readily available. A lot of our work is with children and owing to the peculiarities of the local diet there is a lot of dysentery and malnutrition. In fact about 20 of our beds are always occupied by malnourished children. We also have a lot of accidents - elephant, buffalo and hippo wounds and spear wounds, so the O.R. is busy most days.

Once a month we drop everything and hold a preventative baby clinic - about 700 mothers with their children stampede all over the clinic room and we all attempt to sort them out into heaps for various kinds of vaccinations, prophylactic anti-malarial, birth control advice if requested etc. Actually this hospital had gained such a reputation with the University-Medical School in Kampala, that visiting public health big-shots come out every month and stay a night or two here to observe how a bush hospital puts into practice what they are teaching in the Medical School. This is gratifying but somewhat embarrassing too. Last month a group of nine visitors turned up- students, paediatricians, medical statisticians etc, and the mission became a hotel for a couple of nights.

There's not room to write it all on one air letter form so I'll go on to another one - hope they both arrive at the same time.

This is a continuation of another letter form I've just finished which should arrive with this. I couldn't get it all on one sheet.

Every morning I have prayers with the African Staff and then give a short teaching session. Most of them speak a bit of English but their main language is Kikongo, with Swahili as a second language. Swahili is more a trade language here and so we are learning it and can handle about 4/5 of the clinic conversation in some sort of fashion, though this has to be interpreted into Kikongo for many of the women patients.

We are writing this on a day off following a monthly clinic held for the staff of the Queen Elizabeth Game Park Hotel, which is 25 miles from us. From where we sit, we can see three elephants on the bank of Lake Edward. The other day we went around the park with a biologist who is doing elephant research from Makerere College in Kampala. He shoots elephants with a narcotic, paints large numbers on their backsides and then tracks their migrations etc. Driving among the animals is at first somewhat alarming - particularly in a car whose rear starboard light has been bitten off by a hippopotimus. The only precaution one takes is to keep the motor running and have the car pointing in a direction of escape if necessary - which is fine if you were in a Dodge Charger, but our 12 year old Hillman has a motor that starts and stops when it likes and swift acceleration is against its principles. Any way we've sent home some movies of eyeball to eyeball encounters with these creatures and hope they arrive safely.

We appreciate hearing from any of you who have time to write us a line.

Best wishes to all
Your friends
Hugh and Muriel

World Fishing in Trouble

The world fishing situation is reaching a climatic area with some nations depleting the ocean resources to the point that the survival of some fish species will soon be in jeopardy. The time has clearly arrived that sincere co-operation by maritime nations is required to protect the future of this great primary food source.

The situation on the west coast is also a matter for grave concern and small Canadian operators are not to be forced from their traditional fishing grounds by the large Russian ships. Canada should certainly have the area patrolled by warships -- not as a threat -- but to determine culprits and protect the Canadian boats. If navies aren't created for the protection of those who use the sea -- then what in the world use do they serve?

The solution, however, doesn't lie in a confrontation of warships among the fishing boats. Canada, we hope, will work toward top level meetings of all maritime nations with the goal of international protection of the world's fish resources.

Rides Scarce for Great Hitch-Hiking Throng

Highways across the nation are crowded this summer with a generation of young Canadians on the move from coast to coast.

A large portion of them are respectable youngsters with itchy feet and the determination to strike out from the security of home with little cash and an optimistic thumb. Unfortunately for them, another segment of the company of the road is made up of slobs who will probably spend their useless lives on the move contributing nothing to society.

The latter group is responsible for the others sitting for hours waiting for rides that are often a long time materializing. Few motorists are interested in picking up riders for a variety of good reasons and if you can't tell one from another and already have reservations about hitch-hiking, it's almost a cinch that you will join the rest of the drivers in swishing past the thumbers without a second glance.

It points out a message to those who deride the square society. If you want to enjoy the fruits of the squares' labors, you'll have to change your image completely from those who are so openly critical of the society that has attained the standard of living enjoyed by Canadians today.

National Parks Booming

Vacation travellers through the national parks this summer must have been impressed, as we were, with the number of visitors to the popular mountain resorts.

We didn't get to Banff but found Jasper a very busy community. The number of trailers and campers using park facilities appears to be growing by leaps and bounds and we observed line-ups of vehicles waiting for entry to campsites during the three days we visited.

If the camping build-up continues, it appears inevitable that the day will soon arrive when more locations will be required or travel restrictions imposed.

With an increasingly mobile vacation society it seem the wrong time to consider anything that reduces the use of parks by vacationers. It's something the provincial government might keep in mind the next time industry shows an interest in gaining a foothold in the public parks

Bulls sold 50 higher with the odd sale to 27.70 Increased offerings of light bulls were discounted along with fat bulls. Veal calves were unchanged this week, sales of calves for veal were mostly good to choice female calves. Butcher calves were steady.

REPLACEMENT CATTLE AND CALVES

Replacement trade was active to firm as the week closed. There was a broad demand for good quality feeders with sales over quotations for good conditioned kinds. Heavier fleshy feeders in the 900 -- 1000 lb. class sold mostly in the 29 -- 30 range. In closing trade there were sales to 35.00 for good 750 lb. crossbred feeders. D. V. Highlights

By Mrs. Edith Deby

Last week's issue of MacLeans magazine carried an article by Walter Stewart called "Can Go-Go Eric Kierans Rescue the Mails' The article contained a short verse that probably expresses the sentiments of many folks these days. I quote:

"I wrote a letter to my love.
And in the box I dropped it;
A little postman picked it up
And the damn thing hasn't been seen since!"

The Chester Farnsworths have returned to Fort St. John to live.

Mr. Chester Miller has been in Onoway for a visit with relatives. A re-union of Chester's sisters, the late Mrs. Norman Payne's descendants brought fifteen of the family together for a day of visiting.

Mr. and Mrs. Kennth Mackenzie enjoyed a week of travel in B.C. They made a circle trip which touched on Prince George, Kelowna and Kamloops.

Mr. and Mrs. Kevin Goble and Mr. and Mrs. Ted Bouschard had a different type of holiday. They were taken by car to Cadomin where they began a forty five mile hike which took them by way of Fiddle Pass to Miette Hot Springs where they were met by car. The party proceeded in a leisurely way taking a week for the trip. The going was very rough because floods had washed out portions of the trail. Mrs. Bouschard spoke glowingly of the beauty of the alpine flowers and the extraordinary brilliance of the northern lights. Grizzly bear tracks were seen, but no bears' were encountered.

Sincere sympathy is extended to Mrs. James Crough whose father, Mr. Gus Kruger of Millet passed away while on a visit to his native Germany.

Visitors at the Clarence Dunington home were Mrs. LaRocque and daughter Patti of Edmonton and Mr. and Mrs. Don McCallum of Vancouver.

Best wishes for future happiness go to newly weds, Mr. and Mrs. William Hansen. Mrs. Hansen is the former Miss Marilyn Campbell, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Campbell.

As has been his custom for several years, Mr. William Johanneson will devote two weeks of his three week holiday to taking the cadets to camp in Penhold.

On July 18th, Miss Verna Hodgson, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert W. Hodgson became the bride of Mr. Douglas Sprague. All good wishes for the future, Mr. and Mrs. Sprague.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Beckett, Colleen and Randy, are away for a ten day holiday in B.C. Larry is holding fort in his parent's absence.

CHED radio station's "Good Guy" for Friday last was Linda McMorris, of the Drayton Valley Neptune Club.

SUMMER CRAFT TRAILER
Primitive Pottery, Weaving, Basketry and Painting

All these crafts will be offered on the Parkland Regional Recreation Department's Craft Trailer to visit four different areas during the last two weeks in August.

The previous weeks I have talked about primitive pottery and the weaving. This week I will talk a little on the Basketry which will be offered on the Trailer.

BASKETRY

The basic basketry process is one of the oldest methods of weaving as well as one of the most ancient crafts which still exist.

It has been found that baskets were used for storage before the clay pots were discovered. The baskets were lined with mud or clay to make the baskets stronger and more useful. Probably by accident, one of these baskets came too close to the fire, the reeds burned away, and left a ceramic pot. This is the way the people discovered that when clay is fired, it gets hard and dense and for many years the method of making the basket - lining it with clay - and then firing it - were used to make cooling pots.

We are certainly aware of the important part basketry played in the Indian culture. Many will remember beautiful baskets made of local grasses, often with a colorful design which the Indians obtained by dyeing the grasses in roots, bark or berries.

On the Trailer you will be working with reeds, raffia and rope instead of grasses. If willows are available, this will also be used in making the baskets. Dandilion roots, chokecherries can be used to dye your reed and woven into the basket for a colorfu l design. If you want to finish your projects, beads can be made out of clay and fired with the pottery.

These crafts are open to children as well as adults. A maximum of 8 can attend each session. However, there will be basketry sessions both days, afternoon and evenings, so everyone should have a chance to try it.

Interested??? - come to the Craft Trailer on:
August 17 - 18 at Rocky Rapids
August 20 - 21 at Wabamun
August 24 - 25 at Stony Plain
August 27 - 28 at Spruce Grove

Next week more about painting - see you in August.

EVANSBURG NEWS

Many and various rain showers are slowing down the farmers in their haying operations these days. Of course, in some of the districts, even close by, no rain falls, so haying goes on full time.

Members of the Agricultural Society held their meeting recently at the agricultural building in Wildwood. Much discussion took place on work to be done to the new building before fair day.

Members of the 4-H Clubs held their meeting in the High School. The beef acheivement day was reviewed and further plans were made for the members to take a camping trip. A further meeting about the trip took place at the I. Brown home and plans were made for the trip to take place sometime in August. Two of the club members went to attend Club Week held at Vermilion, Agricultural College. Those attending were Zane Bruner for Lobstick Beef and Kenny Mazeppa for the Pembina Field Crops. Both boys reported having had a week loaded with fun. Now Zane has gone into Edmonton to attend the Rural Youth Seminar. Another member of the club, Caroline Rosadiuk took a trip to Montana and also reported having had a good time.

Among those gone to various summer camps is our son Jeff. He went for a ten day camp to Surprise Lake near Rosevear. In Edmonton, during Exposition Week is Lee Bruner staying with his friend, Brian Hogg.

Due to the heavy rainfall on the 17th, the gymkana scheduled for the 19th had to be cancelled.

A meeting of the summer fair committee took place to review the activities of Pembina Valley Daze. It was decided that the venture had been successful and that the committee would hold a similar celebration next year.

The village streets have taken on a new look since they were oiled in the past week.

Also something else that shows the village is enlarging is the opening of the new car wash center. This will open on August 1st at the spot which has been known to all as the Royalite Service Station. The new business will consist of the existing garage, etc, and will have a coin-op car wash and coin-op laundromat all operated by Mr. and Mrs. A. Lorenz and Staff. Both Mr. and Mrs. Lorenz and their staff wish to invite everyone in for a free coffee and donuts on the 4th when the new business will officially open. As well as the coffee and do-nuts, there will be free balloons for the kiddies.

In the Theory Examinations of the Royal Conservatory of Music of Toronto, held recently at Alberta College, Edmonton, Mary Tkachyk, piano student of Mrs. E. Tkachyk achieved a 91 per cent standing of First Class Honours in the first Rudiments of Music Examination, (Grade V Pracical). Mary plans to take Grade VI (Practical) in January 1971 and Theory 1 in Mid-Winter 1970 - 1971 Examinations.

Recently four students from Quebec were entertained in the district, at the homes of various families. These students came under the Students Exchange programme sponsored by the Federal Government, the Provincial Department of Youth and the Yellowhead School Division.

These government bodies rely on local service organizations to organize and plan the initerary for the students. In this case the following organizations were involved in the planning: the Kinsmen Clubs of Edson and Evansburg, the Kiwanis Club of Hinton, The Alberta Forestry Service and the Human Resources Development Authority. As well, several businesses in Jasper and Edson helped in the project. Among the many activities participated in, the students were hosted at banquets in Hinton on July 8th, in Evansburg on July 11, and in Edson on July 12. Following is an account of the exchange trip written by a member of one of the hosting families, Cecile Fausak:

It all began in June when a call for volunteers to keep four students from Rimouski, Quebec went out. Answering it were the A. Rosadiuk, I. Brown, J. Rosadiuk and K. Fausak families. In a short while, we were notified that we would be hosting Edith Canuel, who stayed at the A. Rosadiuk home; Carles Gosselin, who stayed at the I. Brown home; Jacque Gagne, who stayed at the J. Rosadiuk home; and Carmen Langlais, who stayed at the K. Fausak home. They arrived in Edson at 3:00 a.m., Monday July 6th and the host families picked them up around 10. Expecting them to speak very little English, we were very relieved when every word they said was understood and we continued to be amazed at their fluency in the language. We enjoyed their company the rest of that day and Tuesday.

On Wednesday, the voyageurs and hosting students began a three day excursion in and around Jasper. A tour of the Entrance and Bar-F Ranch was taken where we watched some cutting horses at work with steers which received doctoring. The Hinton Pulp and Power also proved interesting. Supper featuring Chinese food was provided courtesy of the Hinton Town Council. A dip in the pool at Miette followed and then on to the Jasper Rodeo Grounds where camp was set up.

Morning dawned early so it seemed on Thursday, but everyone was awake by the time we reached the Columbia Icefields and we really enjoyed the snowmobile tours. The afternoon was spent in taking the Jasper Sky Tram and climbing to the top of Whisler Mountain. After supper, there was free time to explore the town and much souvenir shopping was done. Hot chocolate and a bonfire sing rounded out the night as it had the night before.

Friday morning after breaking camp, we visited the fish hatchery and Maligne Canyon where most took the walk to the bottom. A three-hour trail ride from the Jasper Park Lodge was the highlight of the afternoon, followed by a quick swim in Lake Annette to get some of the dust off. For some, it was hard to realize that they were no longer on a horse. Around 7:00 the two buses with some 50 nodding passengers could be seen wending their way eastward.

Saturday was spent in catching up on some sleep and preparing for the banquet honoring the four voyageurs. The banquet was held in the Entwistle Elks Hall. Also present were the Evansburg Village Council, representatives of the Kinsmen Club of Evansburg and the School Division, and the host families. Informal speeches were given by each of the voyageurs after being presented with token gifts from Evansburg by Mrs. Cummings. Mrs. I. Brown and Mr. J. Keast also spoke. Thanks to the Entwistle Royal Purple Ladies for serving the delicious meal.

The host families and voyageurs met in Edson on Sunday to begin a round of activities including a tour of a gas plant and oil rig, a gymkana, a swim in the Edson Pool, a barbeque, and a bonfire and sing song.

None of the guests wanted to speak of Monday, but it came and it was a sad farewell for all of us. Carmen, Jacque, Charles and Edith seemed like brothers and sisters to us.

On behalf of the hosting students, I would like to say that it was an experience that we shall never forget and would very much like to repeat. If there was any doubt in our minds about their patriotism, there is none now--they are very loyal Canadians and it makes us proud to have them as fellow citizens.

Many thanks to those who carried the organization of this venture. It is most rewarding to know a little about the French way of life and for this opportunity, we thank you very much.

BURTONSVILLE NEWS

Some of the folks from here attended the very happy occasion of the 60th anniversary of Forest and Edna Walker, of Edmonton on July 18th. Forest and Edna were married in Oklahoma in 1910 and came to Edmonton in 1911. Forest's two sisters and their husbands from Washington came to Burtonsville and visited cousins before going on to Edmonton which was their first time in these parts. They all expressed their joy of seeing such a beautiful valley.

The hail in the Burtonsville area, as reported earlier did no serious damage. Hay and grain crops as well as gardens are very good.

Emil Henkel, his wife, and children of Edmonton visited Emil's sister June Homme and family on Sunday. Cecil's parents were also visitors here.

Marv Tattersall is home again from Arlington Beach near Cymric, Saskatchewan where she attended annual conference of the Free Methodist Church.

Eleanor Osbak of Warburg is also home again after staying at Red Deer where she was helping her Aunt Verna Homme for a couple of weeks. Eleanor will be going to Edmonton to work this week.

Paul and Ruby Walker of Edson are visiting in the neighborhood.

Mrs. Wilfred Tyler of Riding Mountain returned home after taking in the camp meeting at North Battleford. Then came on into Alberta and attended the Walkers 60th Wedding Anniversary.

Food Outlook For August

OTTAWA -- Meat prices will be lower in August, according to a forecast issued today by the Economics Branch, Canada Department of Agriculture. The biggest bargain will likely be turkey broilers. Supplies of pork, beef, broiler and roaster chickens and broiler turkeys will increase during August, putting downward pressure on prices.

Larger North American supplies will exert some downward pressure on pork prices in the near future.

With beef supplies increasing prices may weaken some.

Grade A Large egg prices are expected to advance. Smalls and Mediums will be in plentiful supply with prices likely slightly higher.

Broiler and roaster chicken will be in plentiful supply with current low prices continuing through the month of August. Broiler turkeys will be in plentiful supply with prices trending lower. Supplies of heavy turkeys will be adequate at firm prices.

Couple Honored On 60th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Walker are both quite active. He is 80 years old and she is 79 years.

DATSUN 1600 PICKUP
the most misunderstood truck in the country

We built the Datsun 1600 pickup to be a tough, rugged, no-nonsense, hard-working tool. Fine. A lot of people bought it for just that. But a lot of other people bought it and they don't use it for work. They use it for play.

We put a sturdy 96 horse engine in it because a working truck needs lots of power. We designed it to haul a ton, because a working truck should be able to handle heavy loads. It gets up to 30 miles to the gallon, because a working truck should be economical to operate. And it handles like a nifty little car because there's no reason why a truck that wears like a tank should handle like a tank. We built North America's number-one selling imported truck to work for its living - and they're out there living a life of pleasure.

Where did we go wrong?

Alberta Fairs Are Changing

Alberta's agricultural fairs are getting a new look. Competitive classes are being replaced by displays which are becoming more and more consumer oriented.

The new look started three years ago with Calgary's Agricultural Flair Square and was followed a year later by displays at Edmonton and Lethbridge.

This year in answer to Calgary's "Milk is Marvelous" theme, Edmonton is featuring the "Wonderful World of Beef". Covering Alberta's $300 million beef industry, the "Wonderful World of Beef" is guaranteed to answer all questions on beef from the newborn calf to beef in the bun.

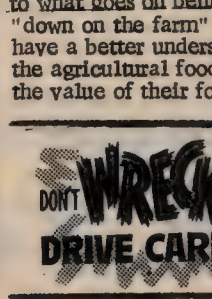
Whenever possible displays will feature live animals - a champion bull, a cow with twin calves yearling steers, feeder steers and typical breed displays. A modern feedlot will show the intricate feeding programs used to add the last pound of lean meat to a steer, and a consumer display will illustrate the various cuts of beef. Another shows the part beef animals play in such things as women's cosmetics, medicine, clothing and dozens of other products.

University of Alberta scientists are displaying a full scale electronic model of a cow used to study the effects of cold weather on beef cattle. A large federal department of agriculture display will explain the importance and meaning of government grading and inspection of beef. There will also be a detailed explanation of livestock marketing, and a wholesale meat cutting presentation via closed -- circuit T.V. Edmonton's packing and processing industries will present the complete story of beef from its arrival at the packing plant until it is delivered to the retail stores.

"The Wonderful World of Beef" will include Canada's largest barbecue. Over 25,000 pounds of beef hips have already been ordered for the first few days and there will be more to come. More than 4,000 pounds of beef can be barbecued every four hours.

Lethbridge's theme this year is "Water Wonderland", designed to illustrate the significance and diversity of southern Alberta's irrigated agriculture. Visitors to "Water Wonderland" will be able to see a variety of growing crops irrigation demonstrations and supporting agricultural displays. Displays will vary from hatching chicks to azuki beans, from irrigation techniques to teletype hog selling, from soil profiles to aquatic weeds and from barbecues to kiddie's zoos. Everything at "Water Wonderland" will be concentrated in a quarter acre of activity and excitement for young and old.

Many other Alberta cities and towns have introduced new ideas and educational value into their agricultural fairs this summer. The new trend is intended to give urban visitors a glimpse into what goes on behind the scenes "down on the farm" so that they have a better understanding of the agricultural food chain and the value of their food dollar.



Mrs. Wallace

Former Resident Passes In East

Mrs. Ida Jane Wallace, one of the early settlers of the Violet Grove district, passed away suddenly at Island Grove, near Toronto, on July 3rd.

Mrs. Wallace was born in Pembroke, Ontario, in 1883. She moved to Edmonton with her husband and family in 1928. Shortly after this the Wallace family filed on several parcels of land west of Violet Grove. Mr. Wallace died in 1935 and Mrs. Wallace came to live with her eldest son, Leslie. When Leslie died in 1968, Mrs. Wallace moved to Toronto to make her home with her son, Kenneth.

Mrs. Wallace is survived by two sons, Kenneth R. and Charles Beresford, both of Toronto, five grandchildren and one great grandchild.

We all join Mrs. Wallace's friends here in extending sympathy to her family.

4-H Clubs Meet At Evansburg

The July meeting of the Pembina Field Crops and Lobstick Beef Clubs was held July 10th at 8:30 p.m. in the Evansburg High School.

Business arising from the minutes was the club tour which was discussed and decided to be held in the 2nd week in August and the transportation to be by bus. A committtee was set up to plan more for the tour. Also the parade at Evansburg on July 4th was discussed. Both clubs entered a float between them and won first prize.

New business was: 25¢ per calf (as commission charge for Wendy Sekura) was to be paid to Fred Hutchinson. It was decided to put up a showcase for both of the club's trophies.

Fred Hutchinson gave an up-to-date account of the treasurer's report.

Beef record books are to be completed before the next meeting, so please hurry and get them filled and handed in to Mr. H.A. Hutchinson so they can be marked.

Revised Pest Control Publications Available

The revised edition of "Control of Livestock Insects" lists the most recent recommendations and rates for controlling lice, ticks, mites, flies, mosquitoes and warble grubs on farm livestock.

The main difference in this year's recommendations and those of last year is that DDT is no longer recommended for backrubbers, used to control insects on livestock that cannot be sprayed. In the revised publication DDT is only recommended for controlling blowflies and screw-worms on sheep and goats.

Pyrethrum is still one of the safest insecticides to use on milking and slaughter animals.

The other change is that ravap has been added to the list of insecticides for controlling flies around farm buildings and corrals. It has a longer residual effect than most of the other recommended fly control chemicals except for dimethoate.

"Dairy Pesticides" is revised annually and contains the latest recommendations and restrictions known at the time it was prepared. There are no changes in recommended insecticides for use on milking cows in the 1970 edition because no new chemicals have been discovered that are safer than those already in use. However, ravap has been added for fly control around dairy barns and milking parlors. This chemical must not be used in milk storage or processing rooms.

In the revised edition of "Control of Garden Pests", DDT is no longer recommended for use on any garden produce. It has been removed from the list of recommended chemicals because of its long residual effects. Malathion is now one of the most commonly used insecticides to control garden pests.

Dyfonate has been added to the list of recommended insecticides for controlling wireworms in large home gardens, or market gardens. It does not persist in the soil for as long as chlordane. There have also been other minor changes in recommended chemicals based on availability or economically-sized containers.

"Control of Garden Pests" is mainly intended for the small garden plot. Anyone growing vegetables on a commercial scale should also use the publication "Control of Field Crop Insects". It lists recommended chemicals for controlling insects in potato, onion, turnip, cabbage and cauliflower crops.

All the recommendations made in these publications are based on safety from the point of view of applicator, crops, livestock and food products as well as on efficiency of control, availability and economy.

"Control of Livestock Insects 1970 - 71", "Dairy Pesticides - 1970" and "Control of Garden Pests" can be obtained from all district agriculturists and from the publications office, Alberta Department of Agriculture, Edmonton.

What's In A Line . . . ?

A fishing line is a fishing line . . . so what's the big deal about line weight, line test and whether it's braided or monofilament?

Despite efforts by fishing line manufacturers, many anglers don't understand the importance of choosing the correct line to match their equipment.

Having the right line can make a lot of difference when it comes to catching fish, says Red Fisher, the angling authority at Mercury outboards. Not only does the correct line help your casting, but it plays a big part in how the lure is presented to the fish.

Red Fisher

Fly fishermen probably have the most critical decisions to make. Rod length, its action and whether they are fishing dry or wet flies are all important considerations.

Generally, a floating, tapered line is used with dry flies, and a level, sinking line with wet flies. Popping bugs for bass call for weight forward lines. Follow the rod maker's recommendations as to line weight. They are usually printed on the butt section of any good rod.

Braided line is excellent for plug casting reels, but should not be used for spinning or spincasting. A hard braid lasts longer but is more troublesome on the reel than a soft braid. Also, braided line floats.

Monofilament line is used almost exclusively with spinning and spincasting equipment. It's nearly invisible in the water and will sink.

Plans Progressing For Hockey Camp

Preparatory work on the Drayton Valley Summer Hockey Camp is progressing satisfactorily The Summer Camp is scheduled to take place in the Centennial Civic Centre from August 25, to August 31st.

To date, some forty-two boys have registered for this week-long session on the fundamentals of ice hockey. To make this camp a success, at least 100 candidates are required. No doubt this number will be reached well before the camp opening. In any event all interested persons should be registered at the earliest opportunity. One hundred and eighty candidates is the maximum number that can be accepted at this Camp. While this number is not likely to be reached we do expect that the 1970 Camp will consist of at least 120 boys.

The Camp is under the direction of Clare Drake and the instruction will be furnished by top university professional and amateur hockey personalities specially trained in the art of hockey instruction.

If you are interested in this Summer Hockey Camp get in touch with your Recreation Department now.

For the young hockey enthusiast this is a golden opportunity to learn the fundamentals of the game from some of the most qualified instructors in the country.

MARKET RESEARCH ANSWER TO SURPLUS

The development of new food products is, by itself, not enough to guarantee success in marketing Canada's surplus agricultural products. Dr. Paul Sims, director of the Canada Agriculture Food Research institute, believes the answer to the problem lies in more market research and integrating product development.

Museum Display Features Pioneer Relaxation Items

Albertan's are offered a rare and delightful glimpse into the spare-time occupations of the province's pioneers, in the new leisure exhibit gallery of the Provincial Museum and Archives of Alberta, in Edmonton.

Director Raymond O. Harrison, on announcing the opening, stated, "Means of relaxation are an important part of any culture. The artifacts produced for leisure-time enjoyment provide an accurate and entertaining insight into the past."

Many fa cets of early leisure life in Alberta are revealed by the display. Included are toys of the various eras, from steam engines to building blocks, dolls to model appliances. Musical instruments which played an important role in home entertainment, range from imported violins and dulcimers to harmonicas. Later mechanical music makers such as the music box, the early "talking machine" and pioneer radios are exhibited.

Commercial entertainment is covered by a display of devices which produced music upon the insertion of a coin, mechanical games which operated on the same princ iple, and theatre projection equipment. The field of sport is represented by a selection of photographs from the Ernest Brown and Glenbow-Alberta Institute collections, showing teams and games of the early days.
